SUBJECT.

FOR ORDERS.

1 Please see enclosed telegram
from Anantapur Collr. in answer
B to mine.

① The Steamer is the Kashmir, expected 28th with a doctor.

② Isa Khan wants time at Calicut
for pilgrims to buy 2 months supplies in open market. (presumably under ^{5.18} Flag L & Rule 32 Flag M.)

It will be easy to give them an opportunity to buy either at the Baysore Camp, or at some convenient place on their way to the steamer: but this will take only a few hours.

③ Isa Khan prefers Baysore to Guntakal.

D In Baysore Camp, accommodation is ready for 150.
with a day's notice, ^{the} pilgrims

The Collr. will have to arrange for a bazaar at the camp at Baysore

NOTE FOR THE

could be moved there. It might look better, might draw together the tenant & Malabar Jitgorins, & would set us free to begin to move the Juntakal Camp to Tungabadra if it is approved of this.

- (4) Isa Khan urges that further "observation is unnecessary." If the Jitgorins stay at Juntakal, detention seems very necessary. If they are moved to Beyjore, still they had better be detained, at least for a time: I think until embarkation.

- (5) He wishes to start 19th: see above.
(6) There will be no difficulty about the money, but Col. W. has been asked to explain by letter.

Yes, until the steamer comes - I don't see why we should let these people wander all over the place. W.S.

Let him go to Beyjore (5) on above condition
