From

The Deputy Adjutant General, Madras Command,

To

M. Hammick Esqre, I.C.S.,

Plague Commissioner,

Madras.

Sir,

In returning the enclosures of your letter No. 279, dated 20th October 1898, I have the honor to inform you that it is open to the Civil authorities at Tanjore to prosecute Private Murugasan of the 19th Madras Infantry for evading the plague regulations, but, as he has committed no offence punishable under the Indian Articles of War, his case cannot be taken up by the Military authorities.

2. A Command Order will shortly be published directing the strict observance of Local plague regulations by all ranks, the effect of which will be that, after its issue, any infringement or neglect of the Plague Regulations by soldiers will be punishable as disobedience of Military orders.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

your obedient servant,

F. J. Terrard Colonel
for Brig-General,
Deputy Adjutant General.

Plague Dis. 4254 of 98 Rev. Taifore Collector's office, 22nd September 1898.

From C. M. S. Boat print
J. Swigg Esquire, Ag. Collector of Taifore,

To

The Plague Commissioner, Colacarnund.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that one Murugesan, Private
No. 741 of the 19th Regiment, Madras Infantry, who arrived at the Taifore Railway Station, from Secunderabad, on the 30th July 1898, and who was granted a passport by the Passport-Issuing Officer at the Station, failed to present himself for observation, before the Local authority.

2. It has now been ascertained on enquiry that the private returned to Secunderabad on the 22nd August 1898.

3. As this is a case of evasion of Plague Regulations, I beg to suggest that the Regimental Authorities may be addressed, in view, to taking such action as may be considered necessary.

4. The Tanjore Chairman's letter no. 1500 to the 26.5.98
address of the officer Commanding the 19th Regiment, Madras Infantry, with the latter's reply in original, is enclosed for reference.

I have the honor to be,
Sir
Your most obed^t servant,
Inkavannan Pillai

FROM,

M. R. V. a. Vaidyanathan
Chairman, Municipal Council, Tanjore.

The officer Commanding the 19th Regiment in I Secunderabad.

Sir,

One Murgeseen Sepoy No 741 of the 18th Regiment in I was given a passport under Plague Regulations on his arrival at the Tanjore Railway Station on the 30th July last.
He was to have appeared before the Hospital Assistant on Plague duty who issued the passport for observation for a period of 10 days consecutively.
The Sepoy did not so turn up though required specially by the Hospital Assistant nor are his whereabouts known.

I have the honor to request that you will be kind enough to inform me if he has returned to duty at Secunderabad & if so when.

I have the honor to be
