SIR,

ENCLOSURES.

nil

I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to inform me when the rules as to the conduct of Elections of Municipal Councillors to be framed as laid down in Government Order No. 2260 M, dated 15th October 1897 may be expected. Two seats in the Coonoor Municipal Council which is one of the Councils referred to by that Government Order are now vacant and two more will fall vacant before the end of May 1898 and I would suggest that these four should be converted into elective seats. Pending publication of the new rules there seems no necessity to fill up the vacancies that have already occurred. The list of voters required to be prepared (vide last para of the Government order) is not ready. I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,
