Mis. ORDER. No. 723 Mins of 4/4/98

The scale of license fees now proposed by the Municipal Council should be revised with reference to the following remarks and resubmitted at an early date:—

(1) It should be stated, what periods the proposed fees are intended to cover in the several cases. The fees under Section 161 should be levied once for all and licenses for temporary erections in a street under Section 170. should not, ordinarily, be granted for more than a fortnight

(2) The fees proposed for places used for washing, soiled clothes ~~and~~ ~~for distilling~~ are excessive and should be reduced. On the other hand, the fee for private slaughter

Please see para. (16) of fo 1074/91 C 11-7-91

slaughter houses is low and might well be raised.

(3) The extent on which the fee proposed under Section 169 is to be levied should be reported.

(4) After the words "license for" occurring in items 6 and 8, the words "constructing, reconstructing or extending" and "places used for", respectively, should be inserted.

(5) The licenses or permits falling under item 12. should be specified
