FROM

J. K. Batten Esqr

Collector and District Magistrate,

North Arcot,

TO

THE

Plague Commissioners
Madras.

SIR,

With reference to para 2 of L. O. no 1023 P, dated, 7th September 1898, I have the honor to inform you that I asked the Secretary to the Commissioners of Salt, Abkari and Separate Revenue to send me a nominal roll of 5 European or respectable Euroasian officers for employment as Supervisors in case plague should break out in the several municipalities in this district. The Board in the separate Revenue department informs me in its proceedings no 2966 dated 5th November 98 that all the men of the department who can be spared for plague duty have already been been deputed. There are no competent men in the other departments in this district.

I have therefore the honor to request that you will be so good as to suggest to me the names of 5 competent officers for employment as Supervisors.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Wm. A. C. C. C. C.
