[SUBJECT.—Exemption from water-tax of certain places in Dindigul Municipality.]

From R. F. Grimley, Esq., Chairman, Municipal Council, Dindigul, dated 25th January 1898.

From J. G. D. Partridge, Esq., Collector of Madura, dated 23rd February 1898.

From G. Mengal, Esq., Chairman, Municipal Council, Dindigul, dated 4th March 1898.

In other places has not the Honourable Member refused exemption ?

H. TREMENHERE—11-3-98.

Yes. In Coonoor the Government has refused to grant exemption—Vide G.O., Mis. No. 1134 M., dated 10th May 1897. But in this town the water-supply scheme was still under investigation when the exemption was sought and this the Government thought fit not to grant exemption from the preliminary rate to any portion of the Municipality. In Dindigul, on the other hand, the water-works have proved defective and until a supplemental scheme is carried out a portion of the town will not be supplied with water. From paragraph 1 of the Chairman's letter in G.O., No. 18 M., dated 5th January 1898, it also appears that the amount of the tax involved will be insignificant (about Rs. 250).

V. RAGHAVA CHARLU—22-3-98.

H. TREMENHERE—4-4-98.

The present circumstances of Dindigul are exceptional, so I will not object to this order. I do not think, however, that it follows that, because water cannot reach a particular part of a town, the buildings in that part should be exempt from water-rate. Even though not getting water supplied, the inhabitants of houses which are not supplied benefit to some extent by the general sanitary improvement caused by the water-supply to the rest of the town, and should therefore pay something. In Ootacamund, for instance, the parts not reached by the water pay half rates, I think, and the same was the rule, I recollect, in Madura. This principle seems fair and should be the guide in similar cases.

[SUBJECT.—Exemption from water-tax of certain places in Dindigul Municipality.]

From R. F. Grimley, Esq., Chairman, Municipal Council, Dindigul, dated 25th January 1898.

From J. G. D. Partridge, Esq., Collector of Madura, dated 23rd February 1898.

From G. Mengal, Esq., Chairman, Municipal Council, Dindigul, dated 4th March 1898.

In other places has not the Honourable Member refused exemption ?

H. TREMENHERE—11-3-98.

Yes. In Coonoor the Government has refused to grant exemption—Vide G.O., Mis. No. 1134 M., dated 10th May 1897. But in this town the water-supply scheme was still under investigation when the exemption was sought and this the Government thought fit not to grant exemption from the preliminary rate to any portion of the Municipality. In Dindigul, on the other hand, the water-works have proved defective and until a supplemental scheme is carried out a portion of the town will not be supplied with water. From paragraph 1 of the Chairman's letter in G.O., No. 18 M., dated 5th January 1898, it also appears that the amount of the tax involved will be insignificant (about Rs. 250).

V. RAGHAVA CHARLU—22-3-98.

H. TREMENHERE—4-4-98.

The present circumstances of Dindigul are exceptional, so I will not object to this order. I do not think, however, that it follows that, because water cannot reach a particular part of a town, the buildings in that part should be exempt from water-rate. Even though not getting water supplied, the inhabitants of houses which are not supplied benefit to some extent by the general sanitary improvement caused by the water-supply to the rest of the town, and should therefore pay something. In Ootacamund, for instance, the parts not reached by the water pay half rates, I think, and the same was the rule, I recollect, in Madura. This principle seems fair and should be the guide in similar cases.

H. TREMENHERE—11-3-98.

Yes. In Coonoor the Government has refused to grant exemption—Vide G.O., Mis. No. 1134 M., dated 10th May 1897. But in this town the water-supply scheme was still under investigation when the exemption was sought and this the Government thought fit not to grant exemption from the preliminary rate to any portion of the Municipality. In Dindigul, on the other hand, the water-works have proved defective and until a supplemental scheme is carried out a portion of the town will not be supplied with water. From paragraph 1 of the Chairman's letter in G.O., No. 18 M., dated 5th January 1898, it also appears that the amount of the tax involved will be insignificant (about Rs. 250).

V. RAGHAVA CHARLU—22-3-98.

H. TREMENHERE—4-4-98.

The present circumstances of Dindigul are exceptional, so I will not object to this order. I do not think, however, that it follows that, because water cannot reach a particular part of a town, the buildings in that part should be exempt from water-rate. Even though not getting water supplied, the inhabitants of houses which are not supplied benefit to some extent by the general sanitary improvement caused by the water-supply to the rest of the town, and should therefore pay something. In Ootacamund, for instance, the parts not reached by the water pay half rates, I think, and the same was the rule, I recollect, in Madura. This principle seems fair and should be the guide in similar cases.

[SUBJECT.—Exemption from water-tax of certain places in Dindigul Municipality.]

From R. F. Grimley, Esq., Chairman, Municipal Council, Dindigul, dated 25th January 1898.

From J. G. D. Partridge, Esq., Collector of Madura, dated 23rd February 1898.

From G. Mengal, Esq., Chairman, Municipal Council, Dindigul, dated 4th March 1898.

In other places has not the Honourable Member refused exemption ?

H. TREMENHERE—11-3-98.

Yes. In Coonoor the Government has refused to grant exemption—Vide G.O., Mis. No. 1134 M., dated 10th May 1897. But in this town the water-supply scheme was still under investigation when the exemption was sought and this the Government thought fit not to grant exemption from the preliminary rate to any portion of the Municipality. In Dindigul, on the other hand, the water-works have proved defective and until a supplemental scheme is carried out a portion of the town will not be supplied with water. From paragraph 1 of the Chairman's letter in G.O., No. 18 M., dated 5th January 1898, it also appears that the amount of the tax involved will be insignificant (about Rs. 250).

V. RAGHAVA CHARLU—22-3-98.

H. TREMENHERE—1-4-98.

The present circumstances of Dindigul are exceptional, so I will not object to this order. I do not think, however, that it follows that, because water cannot reach a particular part of a town, the buildings in that part should be exempt from water-rate. Even though not getting water supplied, the inhabitants of houses which are not supplied benefit to some extent by the general sanitary improvement caused by the water-supply to the rest of the town, and should therefore pay something. In Ootacamund, for instance, the parts not reached by the water pay half rates, I think, and the same was the rule, I recollect, in Madura. This principle seems fair and should be the guide in similar cases.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., MIS. No. 745 M., DATED 5TH APRIL 1898.

[SUBJECT.—Exemption from water-tax of certain places in Dindigul Municipality.]

From R. F. Grimley, Esq., Chairman, Municipal Council, Dindigul, dated 25th January 1898.
From J. G. D. Partridge, Esq., Collector of Madura, dated 23rd February 1898.
From G. Mengal, Esq., Chairman, Municipal Council, Dindigul, dated 4th March 1898.

In other places has not the Honourable Member refused exemption ?

H. TREMENHERE—11-3-98.

Yes. In Coonoor the Government has refused to grant exemption—Vide G.O., Mis. No. 1134 M., dated 10th May 1897. But in this town the water-supply scheme was still under investigation when the exemption was sought and this the Government thought fit not to grant exemption from the preliminary rate to any portion of the Municipality. In Dindigul, on the other hand, the water-works have proved defective and until a supplemental scheme is carried out a portion of the town will not be supplied with water. From paragraph 1 of the Chairman's letter in G.O., No. 18 M., dated 5th January 1898, it also appears that the amount of the tax involved will be insignificant (about Rs. 250).

V. RAGHAVA CHARLU—22-3-98.

H. TREMENHERE—4-4-98.

The present circumstances of Dindigul are exceptional, so I will not object to this order. I do not think, however, that it follows that, because water cannot reach a particular part of a town, the buildings in that part should be exempt from water-rate. Even though not getting water supplied, the inhabitants of houses which are not supplied benefit to some extent by the general sanitary improvement caused by the water-supply to the rest of the town, and should therefore pay something. In Ootacamund, for instance, the parts not reached by the water pay half rates, I think, and the same was the rule, I recollect, in Madura. This principle seems fair and should be the guide in similar cases.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., MIS. No. 745 M., DATED 5TH APRIL 1898.

[SUBJECT.—Exemption from water-tax of certain places in Dindigul Municipality.]

From R. F. Grimley, Esq., Chairman, Municipal Council, Dindigul, dated 25th January 1898.

From J. G. D. Partridge, Esq., Collector of Madura, dated 23rd February 1898.

From G. Mengal, Esq., Chairman, Municipal Council, Dindigul, dated 4th March 1898.

In other places has not the Honourable Member refused exemption ?

H. TREMENHERE—11-3-98.

Yes. In Coonoor the Government has refused to grant exemption—Vide G.O., Mis. No. 1134 M., dated 10th May 1897. But in this town the water-supply scheme was still under investigation when the exemption was sought and this the Government thought fit not to grant exemption from the preliminary rate to any portion of the Municipality. In Dindigul, on the other hand, the water-works have proved defective and until a supplemental scheme is carried out a portion of the town will not be supplied with water. From paragraph 1 of the Chairman's letter in G.O., No. 18 M., dated 5th January 1898, it also appears that the amount of the tax involved will be insignificant (about Rs. 250).

V. RAGHAVA CHARLU—22-3-98.

H. TREMENHERE—1-4-98.

The present circumstances of Dindigul are exceptional, so I will not object to this order. I do not think, however, that it follows that, because water cannot reach a particular part of a town, the buildings in that part should be exempt from water-rate. Even though not getting water supplied, the inhabitants of houses which are not supplied benefit to some extent by the general sanitary improvement caused by the water-supply to the rest of the town, and should therefore pay something. In Ootacamund, for instance, the parts not reached by the water pay half rates, I think, and the same was the rule, I recollect, in Madura. This principle seems fair and should be the guide in similar cases.

The present Circs of Dindigul are exceptional, as I think will appear from the order. I don't think, however, that it follows that because water cannot reach a particular part of a town, the buildings in that part shd be exempt from water rate. Even though not getting water supplied, the inhabitants of houses which are not supplied benefit to some extent by the general sanitary improvement caused by the water supply & the cost of the town, & should ordinarily pay something. I do not, for instance, think that parts not reached by the water pay half rates, I think, & I am sure was the rule, Trichinopoly, in the
