N. 3004 dated Belgaum 29 July 98

Sir,

With reference to your order N. 692 P. Mis dated 18 July 1898 I have the honor to inform you that the reasons given by the Apothecary at Hospali for detaining the Servants of Mr. D. Banerjee Assistant Superintendent of Telegraphs while accompanying that officer are as follows.

"Though accompanying their masters, a public officer travelling on duty, they were personal Servants, and in common with other female individuals they should have had the usual pass from the collector of the district; and more so as they came from a - place which is infected with plague»

2. The persons in question were detained 24 hours and were released on my telegraphing to the collector of Bellary.

3. I would state that as officers of this Department have often to start on journeys at almost a - moment's notice it is not practicable for them to get passes for their servants before leaving their station.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Superintendent.
