C No 1465-

To

The Collector of Salem.

Report of the Tahsildar of Hosur.

Respected Sir,

I respectfully beg to state that the Superintendent of Government Press, Madras, recently supplied to me 5000 copies of the form prescribed for giving intimation to the D<sup>r</sup> medical officer regarding the issue of passports. As these forms are all in English they cannot be used by the village munsiffs who are ignorant of English.

I therefore request that 5000 Tamil copies of the same form may also be ordered to be sent to me at an early date for supply to the village munsiffs. There are 481 village munsiffs in this Taluk and 5000 copies are therefore quite necessary.

I beg to remain
etc
