LOCAL GOVERNMENT DEPT.
1889

The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Local and Municipal Department.

Sir,
The Councillors of the Municipal Council of Rajahmundry, have the honor to bring the following to the notice of Government, and solicit early orders on the subject.

Section 14 of the District Municipalities Act before its amendment lays down that the Councillors may elect one from among their number as their Chairman, and, under the rules framed thereunder for the election of Chairman, a form is prescribed for making nominations to the vacancy of Chairman's post, in which the nominated candidate is described as a Councillor. But Section 14 of the Amendment Act empowers the Councillors to elect even an outsider as their Chairman subject to the rules and conditions that may be laid down by Government. As no fresh rules have been passed under the Amendment Act, the previous rules should be considered, in our opinion to be the rules that now guide the election of Chairman, and in that view it may be said, that the nominee for the Chairman's seat, should be already a Municipal Councillor, as in the form for nomination the word "Councillor" is used in apposition to the name of the nominee, though we are humbly of opinion that it is merely descriptive and that the rules do not lay down that the nominee should be a councillor, and that this descriptive part is impliedly cancelled by the provisions of Section 14 of the Amendment Act, which cancels the provision of the old section, that the Chairman should be elected from among the Councillors.

office will not be a councillor on that date.

At present the chairman's post is vacant, and the election is fixed for the 20th of this month, when we wish to elect, if allowable, M. R. Raj. K. Jagadguraprasadarayudu gam B. A. who was Chairman during the last six years, and who having gone out of office, will not be a Councillor on that date.

We therefore request that early orders be passed whether one that is not already a councillor, if otherwise qualified, may be elected Chairman in order that there may be no doubt on the point of election (20th April), and that he be communicated to the chairman by before that date.

We have the honor to be sir, Yours most obedient servants.
