Sir,

In continuation of this office letter No. 5170 of the 24th June last, I have the honor to state that the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras, has supplied this office with the required number of copies of the Regulations referred to therein in English and Telugu only.

2. With regard to copies in Uriya, the Superintendent says that no copies are available, as translation into that language was not ordered. I solicit the favor of your arranging for the supply of Uriya copies.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Ram Mohan

Offg. Manager.
