Re-booking of Passengers.

Communicating to all Railway administrations Proceedings, No. 302, dated 21st October 1898, re intimation of —, with the request that stationmasters may be instructed to endorse with the word "Plague" in red ink the tickets of all passengers from infected areas who re-book at intermediate stations.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE PLAGUE COMMISSIONER.

READ—again the following paper:—

Proceedings, No. 302, dated 21st October 1898.

ABSTRACT.—Informing the Collector of Salem, with remarks, that the procedure adopted at Jalarpet regarding the intimation of re-booking of passengers is the best and should continue to be followed.

READ—also the following paper:—

From R. B. CLEGG, Esq., Acting Collector and District Magistrate, Salem, to the Plague Commissioner, dated 23rd November 1898, Ref. No. 185-P.C.

I have the honour to request that I may be furnished with 30 spare copies of your Proceedings, No. 302, dated 21st October last, for communication to the Chairmen, Municipal Councils, and to the stationmasters. I would suggest that the stationmasters be instructed through the superior authorities of the Railway department to the effect that when passengers from infected areas, whose tickets will be punched at the inspection stations, alight at stations short of their destination and re-book, their new tickets should be endorsed in red ink with the word "Plague". This, of course, will not apply to stationmasters of inspection stations, as there the tickets will be punched by the Inspecting Medical Officer if they have not been punched already.

PROCEEDINGS—No. 825, dated 30th November 1898.

Thirty spare copies of Proceedings, No. 302, dated 21st October 1898, are herewith forwarded to the Collector of Salem.

2. The Proceedings in question will now be communicated to all Railway administrations with the request that stationmasters may be instructed to endorse with the word "Plague" in red ink the tickets of all passengers from infected areas who re-book at intermediate stations.
