FROM

H. C. D. Harding Esquire
acting COLLECTOR OF Cuddapah.

To

THE

Plague Commissioner,
Madras.

SIR,

I have the honour to report that Parnapalli Kona festival will take place on the 12th December, 1898, at Parnapalli, a village in Pulivendla Taluk of this District. As the village is situated quite close to the borders of Anantapur District, it is expected that many pilgrims from Anantapur, Tadpatri and Dharmavaram Taluks will attend the festival.

2/ Parnapalli is an out of the way place in

in Pulivendla Taluk, far away from Railway. It will be sufficient, I think, to ask the Collector of Anantapore to notify in the villages of the above-mentioned Taluk of his District that people should not attend the festival at Parnapalli.
I am sending a Copy of this letter to that Collector by the same post, and request you to send your instructions to him by wire.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
your most obedient servant

For M. S. S.
