PROCEEDINGS OF THE PLAGUE COMMISSIONER.

LETTER—No. 843, dated 3rd December 1898.

To
THE COLLECTOR OF

SIR,

I have the honour to invite your attention to the instructions issued in G.O., No. 279 P., dated 25th March 1898, with regard to the submission of proposals to place restrictions on fairs and festivals. There have been several instances of late in which the notice given has been too short for proper action to be taken and in one case a Collector's report was received after the festival had actually commenced. It is requested that in future all such proposals may be sent so as to reach me at least three weeks prior to the date from which they are to be given effect to, and that draft notifications under the Epidemic Diseases Act may be sent along with them.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

L. E. BUCKLEY,
Plague Commissioner.
