Presumably the Collector has no sources for information except the Jeyagan staff who may or may not have noted the time of arrival.
This Dept will ask for the information from Gen.
of Bombay of L & M Dept and meanwhile L & M Dept might perhaps ask Collector for it. as a check.

But I am disposed to think that the S.M.R. might be taught the lesson that it is not for them to judge of what time it takes to make a inspection & that what they have to do is to arrange their train service to suit the maximum length of inspection. The inspection staff at the same time might perhaps be told to try & limit the time of inspection, ordinarily, to 60 or 75 minutes.
