Plague Medical Officer.
Jalarpet.

To

The Collector of Salem

Sir, With regard to the discovery of rats in the trains I learn on enquiry that two rats were killed in the guard's van of the passenger train from Bangalore. They were not found dead in the goods train as I was originally informed. A casual examination disclosed no sign of plague. The fact is only significant as showing the possibility of infected rats travelling in this manner.

I have &c.
