ORDER.

The Government is not satisfied of the ^{need} necessity of an Asst Sanitary Inspector at Randjoh, and considers that the proposal to employ one should be negatived. It has appears that from the 19th May to the 29th June 1898, a period of 42 days, only 36 passports were issued at Randjoh, the maximum number for any one day being 7. and The Government is therefore of opinion that the duty of issuing passports at that place may be undertaken by the Station master without inconvenience to his work, and requests the Agent, S. M. R. to issue instructions accordingly.

2. The ~~ten~~ day's examination of the passport holders should

S.O. No 40 P. dt 12-7-1898

Dear Mr. Mahomed Raza Khan

With reference to your letter No 14 dt 2-7-98 (written as President St Board), I am directed to state that in the opinion of Govt it is doubtful whether a Special Sanitary Inspector is needed at Nandyal for the purpose of inspecting passengers who alight at that station. If he is required for issuing passports, I am to inquire how many passports are issued daily on an average, and whether an Officer on less pay may not be appointed for this duty.

My dear Mr. Tremenkore

As desired in your D.O. of the 12th ultimo, I beg to give below particulars of the number of passports issued by the Assistant Sanitary Inspector, Kundyal, since the date on which he joined his duties—

Date	no. of passports issued
19-5-98	3
20-5-98	1
24-5-98	2
28-5-98	2
31-5-98	1
10-6-98	2
14-6-98	3
15-6-98	4
16-6-98	12
21-6-98	6
24-6-98	7
26-6-98	2
29-6-98	2
Interval 42 days	36

It will be seen from the above figures that the daily average is not even 1 though the number issued on a single day is sometimes 6 or 7. The employment of an Assistant Sanitary Inspector on 25 Rs. for this station seems therefore unnecessary, and, as the Agent G. M. P. has stated that it would interfere with the Station Master's work, if he should be required to issue passports and as the Head Assistant Collector reports that there is no local officer whose ordinary duties can be reconciled with the duty of inspecting the trains and of issuing the passports, a man on less pay may be entertained for the purpose. But Dr. King seems to be of opinion (please

G.O. no. 565 P mis) that the duty 11.6.98
of inspecting the arrivals should not be entrusted to nonprofessional
-al men - not even to Station masters who may be presumed to be persons of some experience and capabilities - but that it should be done by medical subordinates or others specially trained. The Assistant Sanitary Inspector (and not Sanitary Inspector as mentioned in your letter) now employed at Andwal is a man sent by Dr. King. The Sanitary Commissioner may be asked whether he can depute a man on less pay; or if he would dispense with special training and approve of a local man, one may be appointed.

day, on Rs 15.

A cheaper and more desirable arrangement however would be to have the duty of issuing the passports performed by the station master of Naudyal with the concurrence of the Agent, G. M. Ry., who may be asked to reconsider his previous reference to me and to agree to the proposal in view of the extremely trifling average number of passports issued and the little additional time and labor which the extra work is likely to entail.

I regret the delay in this matter which is due to the
