To, The Collector of Anantapur.

Sir, I have the honour to state that on arrival here this morning, I was informed that there was another case of plague yesterday evening. A Mohammedan by name Whali Shit who was a platform coolie and who was living in a hut adjoining the Railway Staff Quarters to the South of the Junction building was reported to have left his hut yesterday, when he found that he had an attack of severe fever, with his family and lodged himself in a vacant temple near Guntakal village. As soon as this information was received by the District Surgeon, the man was removed to the Plague Camp and his family to the suspect camp. The hut in which he was living with all the rags, pots and grain &c, all of the estimated value of about Rs 25, and another in contact with it of the value of Rs 20 were demolished and burnt as required by the District Medical and Sanitary officer. The earth was also scraped and burnt, and the floor disinfected.

Have you seen feet of vacant temple where Ghat-Sab
lost for some Guntakal village
