GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Office-note from the Plague Commissioner, to the Secretary to Government, Local and Municipal Department, No. 2, dated 30th September 1898.

The Sanitary Commissioner and the President, Municipality, Madras, have brought to the notice of the Plague Commissioner the advisability of a further railway check on passengers coming into Madras from Arkonam, who re-book at Arkonam and reach Madras by the South Indian Railway station via Chingleput. The Plague Commissioner referred the matter to the Medical officer at Arkonam. He states that several passengers coming from infected areas re-book to Conjeeveram, Chingleput and stations further south. He says it is not possible for him to know whether they re-book with the object of avoiding inspection on reaching Madras or not, that it is quite possible that some passengers are given passports, but they are not watched. In addition to the issuing of passports to all passengers who re-book at Arkonam, it is advisable that their fresh tickets should be punched for this purpose. The Plague Commissioner therefore recommends that an inspection be made of the trains coming from Arkonam to Chingleput. This inspection can best be made at Chingleput. Any passengers who have plague-marked tickets will, on alighting at Chingleput, be watched in view to see whether they re-book or not to Madras, and in cases they do re-book, their names and addresses at Madras will be taken and passports issued to them accordingly, the local authority in Madras being advised. Sanction is therefore requested for posting a hospital assistant with necessary staff at Chingleput for the purpose of checking passengers who come to Madras from Arkonam by that route and an additional clerk will also be necessary at Arkonam to watch who re-book there and secure that their tickets are punched before the train starts.

The Plague Commissioners
Madras

Sir,

In reference to your order No 6.
dated 28th September 1898. I have the honor to inform you that many passengers coming from infected area
rebook here to Coimbatore, Chingalpet and to stations further South. It is not possible for me to know whether they rebook here with the object of avoiding the inspection before getting into Madras.
but it is possible that some of them
may eventually go to Madras.

2

All passengers from infected area who rebook here, are given passports but they are not watched
