To The Collector of the Chingleput D^o, Saidapet

Sir, I beg to state that I addressed both the Tahsildar and the Police Inspector of this place requesting them to secure the services of pensioned police Constables or military pensioners for the purpose of watching the plague hospital and the Segregation Sheds, but they could procure none. Only one pensioned police Constable was available. This man and another I have employed to keep watch both by day and night on a monthly salary of Rs 3-8-0 each. I have also deputed two lathies to assist them during nights with an allowance of one rupee each. I request that my action action may be approved.
