Under G.O. No. 2260 m. dated 15th October 1897, four of the Municipal Councillors of Anakapalle and four of Birnikipattanam should be appointed by election; but in his first letter read above, the Collector proposes to assign one elective seat to each of the two wards into which the towns are to be divided, thus making a total of only two elective seats for each.
The Collector is requested to explain this discrepancy without delay.

SIR,

With reference to the Memorandum No 500 dated 27th April 1898, I have the honor to state that "one elective seat" specified in my letter R.C. no 1387 dated 5th February last is a clerical error for "two elective seats" and request that it may be corrected accordingly.

The number of voters in each of the two wards into which the Anakapalli Municipality is proposed to be divided is 90.
