Note for the Secretary

Last year the Agent Madras Railway made the
punches - vide his letter printed in J.O. No 418 in d/10-3-97
and he may be so informed
by telegram to adopt the same pattern whatever it ~~was~~
was, as punches are urgently
wanted at Jalapet.

The question of adopting ~~a~~ a standard pattern for all inspecting stations may be settled after ascertaining what punches are actually in use
at present.

The following reply may be sent to Agent, Madras Railway.

'Your telegram to Railway
about plaque punches. Please adopt ~~same~~ last year's
pattern vide your letter

NOTE FOR THE Secretary

The P.W. Dept (Reg Branch)
originally ordered the supply of the punches "with a special device" (vide GO No 128 R printed in GO.
No 332 in d/1-3-97). What that device is is not known in this office.

2. In its letter No 28 R. I. d/10-1-98, printed on page 1 of GO.
No 295 in d/1-2-98, the Govt of India instructed the Bombay Govt
to arrange for punching a hole 4/10ths of an inch square in the tickets of all passengers from that Govt going to other parts of India. In Sanjib, a round 1/4 inch in diameter is punched.

(GO. 328 P d/12-4-98).

3. In Press Regulation 16
(page 14 of the Plaque pamphlet)
requires that "some mark indication of the passenger having been inspected" should be impressed
on the ticket. As a passenger say from Hubli to Madras, must be inspected at each of the Hospet

Flag E

Flag J

Flag K

Hospet, Guntakal, Arkham
and Serambur Stations, it is submitted that each station
must have its own special mark.

The following is the list of the proposed inspection stations and each station
may be given a serial Roman number and a round hole, then

Jalampet — I<sup>o</sup>

Hridpur — II<sup>o</sup>

Pahala — III<sup>o</sup>

But the difficulty will be to impress
more than 2 or 3 marks on the same ticket
on account of its small size.

I think perforating punches
might be used to show
inspection, the punches
perforating the first two
letters of the inspection
station as marked in
red ink.

Very 29/8/97 To L & M Dept.

I think that the G.O. drafted below has both come in the L. & M. Dept. From the file of Agent M. R. enquiring about a journal for Guntakal it looks as if L. has been carried out.
The order contained in G.O. No 6 of G.O. 128 dated 25th Feb. 97. And I do not wonder considering the way it is worded, as no mention is made of the person by whom the punches were to be supplied. I see no good in telegraphing. The junction of the form suggested, to prepare initial letters, will not be long to make. I don't in the least know how the railway stops are going to make them.

The best junction would make say one round hole  $\bigcirc \frac{1}{4}$  inch. for all the stations, and alongside of it 4 long slots or holes, Roman, then I, II, III, IV, V, to indicate the station, in accordance with a definite scheme. Thus.

Guntakal • I
Mungabuden • II
Aukman • III
Perambur • IV
Jellangut • V
Podanur • VI

Hosur • VII
Hindupur • VIII

Kondapilly • IX

Pakkala • X

These can be made with a reasonable kind of punch which a fitter can make. The letter punches to prepare cannot practically be made by a fitter in any reasonable time. FWS 4/9/98
