NOTE FOR THE P.A.

The Appointment of the Clerk on the 15th referred to appears to have originally been sanctioned by the Collector. The clerk is working under Mr. T. Todd Senior Assistant Surgeon at Amritsar whose appointment appears to have been created exclusively for plague work. Hence the charge is "direct". If the increase of pay recommended is found desirable, it may be sanctioned by the Commr.

The Collector Anantapur District

Sir,

At our meeting the other morning (Saturday) when you proposed for a second clerk to be entertained for Dr. Hunter, I brought to your notice that Rs 15/- was a small salary to obtain a moderately intelligent man and informed you that the present plague clerk Venugopal Rao serving under me finds that his pay Rs 15/- is insufficient to feed and clothe himself. His duty in writing out passports and Intimation returns to the various plague authorities keeps him fully occupied for the day and his attendance at the Railway platform every night for the 'up' and 'down' trains at the hours of 10.45 P.M. and 2.4 A.M. adds to his labour, therefore, I would suggest that his pay be increased to Rs 20/- per month and hope that this my recommendation will meet your approval and sanction.
