Proceedings of the Ag. Collector of North Arcot, dated 17-12-98

Read: this office Proceedings Ref on Cnr no 582 P of 98, dated 15th November 1898.

Order

In paras 1 and 2 of the Proceedings read above a second ambulance staff according to the scale laid down in Regulation no 9 printed in page 32 of the Madras Plague Regulations and Rules was ordered to be formed at and stationed at Vellore. The number of imported cases occurring in this district has however materially decreased, and the collector does not think it necessary to have the full number of menial servants prescribed for an ambulance staff for dealing with the stray cases which occur at present. The President, District Board is — therefore

therefore requested, to entertain the following number of menial servants instead of the full number already ordered:-

Male ward attendants	2
Female do	2
Dhoby bearers	2
Male Toty	1
Female do	1
Cook	1

There is no necessity to entertain the services of a dhoby permanently. Whenever necessary the dhoobies in villages can be made to do the washing for a small remuneration.
