on this office letter No. 312 dated the 15th July 1898. to the Secretary to Government

Resolved that resolution No. 5 of the 9th July be modified as follows:-

The Council extremely regret to learn that Government can do nothing at present in respect of the water supply of this rising town, but as the matter is one of undoubted urgency the Council hope Government will be pleased to take up the scheme whenever it becomes possible. At present no water whatever will be found anywhere in the town.
