Madras.

SIR,

I have the honour, with reference to G.O. 459 M. Mr's, dated 31st March 1897, to state that out of the amount of the Municipal land and water taxes outstanding on 31st March 1897, against the municipalities noted villages situate within the local limits of this Municipality, a sum of Rs 61/- has been reported to have been collected up to date, leaving a balance of Rs 147-2-6 entirely due from the two villages of Viswanadhapuram and Nagarajpet.

2/- The Village Magistrate who was responsible for this ~~very~~ reprehensible negligence has recently been dismissed by the Divisional officer and a more efficient man has been appointed in his stead.

3/. With the special endeavors of the newly appointed village officer and with the diligent supervision of the Dahsildar of who has been instructed to look to this matter urgently, I believe that by the end of the current month, the whole balance will disappear.

I have the honour to be,
Sir

Your most obedient servant
