Sir,

Adverting to G.O. No. 2338^{revised} dated 28-10-1897, I have the honor to state that the Chief Sanitary Inspector C. Nallawami Pillai is engaged under my personal supervision and orders in making out a complete list with actual measurements and other particulars of shade stones and other objectionable coverings over the drains for eventual removal under the Act and the orders of Government and that he has been deputed for the purpose in consideration of his special aptitude for the work. He is an intelligent and experienced officer, has been in the Sanitary establishment for 7 years and has given entire satisfaction in the discharge of his duties as probationary Chief Sanitary Inspector.

In these circumstances

I have the honor to request that Government
