DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

With reference to G.O. No. 164 M dated 24th January 1898, I have the honor to state that Surgeon-Major F.C. Reeves has been warned to hold himself in readiness for duty in connection with the pilgrim camp at Beypore, and that with reference to para 200, India Army Regulations Volume VI Medical as reconstructed by India Army Circulars 194 of 1896, the General Officer Commanding, Southern District, has been requested to arrange for the relief of Surgeon-Major Reeves by one of the Military Medical Officers on the Hills without prejudice to the latter officer's own duties.

2. As regards Guntakal, Surgeon-Major H. Thomson has, in pursuance of the scheme lately sanctioned, been directed to assume charge of the plague Medical inspection station at Guntakal and will be available for duty in connection with the pilgrims

Surgeon-Major W.F. Thomas, District Medical and Sanitary Officer, Cuddapah.
Surgeon-Major H.M. Hakim,
District Medical and Sanitary Officer, Anantapur.
Surgeon-Major A.T.L. Patch, District Medical and Sanitary Officer, Kurnool.

3. With reference to para 3 of the G.O. the Medical Officers named in the margin have been warned to hold themselves in readiness; they can be temporarily relieved by their Assistants, whereas the other District Medical and Sanitary Officers are in charge of Central

Jails

Jails &c and cannot be easily spared.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

C. S. S. S.

Surgeon-Major-General,

Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras.

Clause 194.

India Army Circulars, 1896.

Corrections in Army Regulations, Vol. II, Medical

Para. 200 is reconstructed as follows:—

"200. Whenever it becomes desirable, as a temporary measure, to assign civil duties as an extra charge to a medical officer in military employment or to assign military duties to a medical officer in civil employment, the concurrence of the local Government, and of the general officer Commanding the district will be previously applied for by the Civil Administrative Medical Officer or District Principal Medical Officer as the case may be. When a medical officer holding one of these extra charges is moved from the station on leave or otherwise, it is the duty of the Civil Administrative Medical Officer and the District Principal Medical Officer to arrange, in communication with each other, for the continued performance performance of the extra duties. to officer of the Indian Medical Service is at liberty to decline to undertake any duties assigned to him as an extra charge."

200. When it becomes known that a temporary measure to assign Civil Surgeons as an extra charge to a medical officer in military employment or to assign military duties to a medical officer in Civil employment, the Government of the local Government, and of the General Officer Commanding the District will be previously applied for by the Civil Administrative Medical Officer or District Principal Medical Officer as the case may be. When a medical officer holding one of these extra charges is removed from the station or leaves or otherwise it is the duty of the Civil Administrative Medical Officer or District Principal Medical Officer to arrange for the continuation of the work of the station.
