No. 232

The Government does not consider it necessary to fix the date now proposed by the Municipal Council for the delivery of voters' lists, as a date applicable to all Municipalities will be fixed in the revised election rules to be issued shortly.
The existing lists will continue in operation until fresh lists are prepared under these rules.

Sir,

In G.O. No: 978 h. No: dated 28th July 1893, the 1st September signed by the Council under No: 7 of the election rules was approved by Government.

2. As there was a dispute between the three Chairmen and the Council regarding the propriety of revision by the former of the lists

lists delivered to him on or before the 1st September 1896, the rules relating to the publication and confirmation of those lists were not complied with, the orders of Government being awaited.

Orders were passed in S. O. No. 6604 in dated 23rd March 1897.

3. The lists were published on 27th idem and confirmed on 28th May. They will therefore be in force till 27th May 1898.

4. The Council has now in its Resolution No. $\frac{4}{23.8.97}$, Copy submitted herewith, signed under Rule No. 7 the 15th March 1898 as the date on or before which the next list of persons entitled to vote should be delivered to the Chairman.

5. I have the honor to request that that this date may be sanctioned by Government.
