ORDER. No. 412 Mins dy 21-2-98

The Government agree with the Accountant General in considering that Dewan Bahadur P. Ramaswami Chettiyar is entitled to a pension of only Rs 327-4-- per mensem, as Article 465-A of the Civil Service Regulations, under which the Standing Committee proposes to grant him qualifying service from 1st January 1871 and thus render Article 521 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations inoperative, refers only to condonations of deficiencies in qualifying service and cannot apply to the present case, in which the officer has put in sufficiently long service to entitle him to a half pension. The pension must therefore subject to reduction under Article 521(a). The President is accordingly requested to move the Standing Committee to reconsider its resolution of the 3rd December 1897, in the light of the above remarks and report the result to Government.

2. The qualifying service of Dewan Bahadur P. Ramaswami Chettiyar having commenced only on the 16th February 1871, his case is governed by Article 521(a) of the Civil Service Regulations, which came into force in January 1871 and as pointed out by the Accountant General in his report embodied in the G.O. above quoted, his pension should be reduced by 7/40ths. In its resolution, dated 3rd December the Standing Committee stated under Article 465-A of the Civil Service Regulations, "qualifying service from 1st January 1871, to be granted" to Ramaswami Chet and that this course will render Article 521(a) inoperative, so that the full pension of Rs 396-10-8, may be granted to him. It is, however, observed that Article 465-A of the Civil Service Regulations which, apparently refers only to condonations of deficiencies in qualifying service, cannot apply to the present case, in which the officer has put in sufficiently long service to entitle him to a half pension, but his pension is liable to a reduction by the operation of Article 521 (a). Section 48 of the Madras Municipal Act says that the Governor in Council shall from time to time prescribe rules for the grant of retiring pensions or gratuities to officers and servants appointed under this Act &c &c," and as the provisions of the Civil Service Regulations have been declared to be applicable to the grant of pensions to the officers of the Madras Municipality - vide G.O. No 1197 M, dated 9th July 92 -, Dewan Bahadur Ramaswami Chettiyar's pension must be subject to the reduction under Article 521 (a).

SIR,

With reference to Govt. Order No. 2358 M. Miscellaneous, dated 28th October 1897, regarding the application for pension on behalf of Dewan Bahadur P. Ramaswami Chettiar, late Revenue Officer, Municipal Commission, Madras, I have the honour to forward copy of an Extract from the Proceedings of a meeting of the ~~Sub~~ Standing Committee held on the 3rd December 1897, from which it would appear that the Committee have resolved to grant to Mr. Ramaswamy Chettiar a pension of Rs 396-10-8 a month, while the amount of pension to which

which he is entitled is only Rs 327-4-- a month as reported by me on his Pension application No. $\frac{A\,08}{75}$ dated 17th May '97. As the grant of the enhanced rate of pension appears to be irregular, I have thought it desirable to bring the matter to the notice of Govt., agreeably to the ruling contained in paragraph 2 of Govt. Order No. 1705 A, M, Local and Municipal dated 15th November '90.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obdt. Servant,

J. Manisa

Extract from the Proceedings of a meeting of the Standing Committee held on 3rd December 1897.

Pension to Diwan Bahadur P. Ramaswamy Chettiar, late Revenue Officer

Read Govt. Order No. 2358 M. Misc, dated 28th October 1897, stating that under the existing circumstances the amount of pension payable to Diwan Bahadur P. Ramaswamy Chettiar, late Revenue Officer, must be determined in accordance with the Civil Service Regulations and that the Standing Committee is bound in disposing of the question of his pension to abide by the Regulations.

Under the provisions of clause 465 A. Civil Service Regulations, the Standing Committee are of opinion that qualifying service from 1st January 1871 may be granted - this will render article 521 A. inoperative and the full pension of Rs 396-10-8 may be granted.
