Sir,

* Go No 2682 M. Int. dated 2^d December 1897

With reference to jagannath's market extension by acquiring the sites of the burnt houses, I have the honour to request that you will kindly be pleased to inform by wire the publication of the draft declaration for the acquisition, in as much as owing to modification of the original proposals and correspondence upon the subject, there arose much delay and the owners who were prevented from building thereon are pressing for payment of compensation, so as to enable them to secure houses elsewhere. If the compensation be not disbursed within the close of the year, the amount allotted will lapse. I further beg that the Divisional Officer be authorized to make over the sites to the Municipality and disburse the compensation to the owners.

who agreed as to the amount and presented petitions to the effect.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Ben nji
Chairman
