To

The Secretary to the Government of Bombay.

Sir:

Adverting to the latter part of your letter No 779, dated 17th February 1898, I am directed to state that the Surgeon-General with this Government, does not appear to have made any definite offer of the appointment of Health Officer, Madras, to Dr. Cayley but he merely instituted enquiries for His Excellency's information as to whether Dr. Cayley would be willing to take up the appointment, if offered to him. His Excellency has now made other arrangements for filling up the vacancy. (Imms ordus)

I am directed to acknowledge & continuation received through the Government of India that His Excellency the Governor of Madras has consented to permit the special plague doctors from England, destined for Madras to remain on duty in this Presidency until actual necessity arises for their services in Madras, and to tender the thanks of this Government to His Excellency for this great assistance. I am also to inform you that one of the five Officers deputed to Madras was Dr Bayley, to whom an offer has been made through the Surgeon General of the appointment of a Health Officer to the Madras

Municipality.

Municipality. Dr. Bayley is at present engaged in bacteriological researches of the greatest importance in the plague stricken houses of Poona, and I am to enquire whether it would be possible with the permission of His Excellency in Council for the offer of this appointment to be kept open for a short period, pending the further prosecution of Dr. Bayley's researches.

NOTE FOR ~~THE~~ His Excellency the Governor.

With reference to the latter portion of the letter from the Government of Bombay (flagged B), it appears from the Surgeon-General's demi-official (flagged C) that he made no definite offer of the appointment of Health Officer to Dr. Cayley, but merely instituted enquiries for His Excellency's information, as to whether ^{Dr. Cayley} he would be willing to take up the appointment, if offered to him. It is therefore submitted that the Bombay Government may be informed of this and of the fact that His Excellency has ^{now made} been compelled to make other arrangements for filling up the vacancy.

2. As regards Dr. Cornwall, a telegram was despatched to the Government of India on the 11th instant, requesting that his services ^{might} may be placed at the disposal of this Government at an early date, but no reply has yet been received.

4 January 1898

My dear General,

As you know, the Health Officer-
-ship of the Madras Municipality is now vacant.
His Excellency wishes you to send him the names of two or three men who, you think, would be suited to the appointment. Some of the younger men in Government service might perhaps be ready to take it up for a term of years, or you may perhaps know of men on the military side, or some of the new plague doctors recently sent out from home might be willing to apply.
According to the Act, the pay is between Rs 500 and 1000; but Govt. would probably be
