MOST HUMBLY SHOWETH,

CURRENT No. 3015 M

That your petitioner begs to submit the following for the favourable and generous consideration of your honor with the earnest hope that his unfortunate case will meet with that justice which it deserves:-

THAT your petitioner was taken on the menial establishment of the Municipal office and in consideration of the good service and conduct, and your petitioner was favored with the post of Harkara, and your petitioner was continued to licenses. connection your petitioner begs to inform that the collection derived from carriage taxes always fluctuated each half year; and the amount collected for the two half years never approximated; a reference to the records during the administration of M.R.Ry: Ramaswamy Chetty avergal, the late Revenue officer will prove the above statements. The main cause (your petitioner comes to know from the carriage owners) is that several persons, in Madras, have disposed of their carts, as they have lost every chance of earnings on account of the introduction of Electric Tram Cars which carry passengers and others at very easy rates and run throughout the city. There were 150 carts lost to the maximum No viz 5000 in the second half year of 1898-1899 The Revenue officer thereupon employed 3 Detective officers at Rs. 15 each per-mensem. This it is not known with what object they were so entertained. However, they worked along with your petitioner for 6 months, and at the closed of the half year, it was observed that even the 3 Detective officers could not seize any carriages more than what your petitioner had already collected; but still the same number (150) wanting. The Revenue officer placed the matter before the President, whose decision is not communicated to your petitioner; and your petitioner was working as usual. A few days after the Manager, at the instance of the Revenue officer asked your petitioner to submit a list for the number of carriages wanting in his Division and the list was duly submitted. Meanwhile the manager called for the authority order, which was also delivered over- even then, your petitioner was regularly attending the office. Two days hence the authority order was again furnished, and, your petitioner commenced his legitimate work till up to 5th May 1899 and on the 6th, suddenly your petitioner was informed that his services were dispensed with, but no reasons were assigned for his removal. Is this the benefit and reward for the faithful services and hard work of over 21 years standing - This was represented to the Municipal Commissioners M.R.Ry: Sivaganna Mudaliar avergal and M.R.Ry: Lukshmana Chari, avergal, who both felt sorry and requested Mr. Ellis, the then Acting President to postpone the matter for the decision of Colonel MOORE, who was then on leave, Mr. ELLIS could not but find the manager Rs. 20, for keeping the order without communicating till after two months.

YOUR petitioner further begs to represent that the Revenue officer nominated two selected Harkaras for this purpose but even they, your petitioner came to know could not get the full number of 5000 carts- no Harkara or any body could possibly stand responsible for this fluctuation. This itself proves your petitioner's honesty and every thing. If your petitioner, after a faithful and loyal service of over 21 years standing (and when your petitioner faithfully spent his age and exhausted his life for the benefit and welfare of the Municipality) is thrown out for no fault of his, WHERE I and to whom? should your petitioner resort for the daily bread for your petitioner and his large family consisting of 7 souls, specially at a time when his age is bent down by wear and tear in Municipal service.

YOUR petitioner, therefore, most respectfully requests that your Honor in the plenitude of your mercy, will be graciously pleased to order the Municipality to restore your petitioner either to his last appointment, or to his former, and if the Municipality does not see its way to accede to with r, to grant your petitioner an invaliding pension for the past service of over 21 years.

FOR which act of grace and charity

Your petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray.
