District Board, Bellary.

Reference your letter No. B.R. 567 19.4.98.

Sir,

In resubmitting the above, I have the honour to report that the post of Chairman of the Kanchal Union remained vacant for some months past for the following reasons: One Mr. P. Nagappa was chairman of the Union till his term expired on 15.1.97. There were several complaints against him while he was in office and he was shown to have belonged to one of the two factions in the village. It was not therefore thought advisable to recommend his reappointment. Among the other members there were none fit for the post. I wanted to recommend the Hospital Assistant for the post, but there was no permanent incumbent during the famine and when I consulted the District Medical and Sanitary Officer, I was informed that the acting man would not remain there long (vide also your letter No. 348 19.4.97). When I recommended the temporary Hospital Assistant

Assistant Rajakannu Mandalaiar. When, after the famine was over, I wanted to recommend the permanent man, I had reasons that the Hospital Assistant was siding one of the factions. The Village Reddi has consequently been in charge of the Office of Chairman all the while for want of a better man, though he too belongs to one of the factions. Now that a permanent Hospital Assistant (B Doraiswami Pillai) has been posted to the dispensary here and is unconnected with either party, I have recommended him.

I have the honour to be,
 Sir,

Your most obedient servant
