To,

The Plague Commissioner
Madras

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that on receipt of letters from the Collector and the District Medical and Sanitary officer Shistna in May last, one segregation camp and one quarantine camp have been temporarily erected in this Municipality near the sea shore for the cases of Plague imported from Calcutta, by sea.

The Council in its meeting held on the 24th June 1898, has sanctioned

I, therefore, request you will
