The Collector of Cuddapah

Sir,

I have the honor to request that, in the circumstances noted below, you will be pleased to accord sanction for the payment of plague allowance of Rs. 100 to the Sanitary Inspector of the Municipality S. P. Venkatarao, who in addition to the general sanitary work of the Municipality has been appointed to attend to plague duty within the town.

He was appointed first in December 1896 as Divisional Inspector and performed the duty of observing passengers and issuing passports at the Railway station.

During this period he devoted his whole time to plague duty he was given a pay of Rs 35, an allowance of Rs 15 and an orderly on Rs 8. He did this work till 24.7.98. It was afterwards deemed advisable to employ an Hospital Assistant for the work. That was done and Venkatarow was appointed to relieve him on alternate days. Another Hospital assistant was afterwards employed on 14.11.98 at the Railway station and Venkatarow appointed to do work in the town.

Now the Hospital assistants employed at the Railway station examine and issue passports to the passengers that alight at the Railway station and enter the town while those who enter the town by road and by alighting at the other Railway stations are observed by S. P. Venkatarow and passports are issued to them by him.

Considering that the appointment of a separate officer for this work would be too costly, the Sanitary Inspector of the Municipality was made to do this work and he is given an extra allowance of Rs 10 and a peon on Rs 8. As Sanitary Inspector he gets his usual pay Rs 25 and Commisance allowance of Rs 15, but he had no peon given him.

In these circumstances I request that the plague allowance of the Sanitary Inspector and the pay of his peon be sanctioned with retrospective effect from ^{24th September} ~~12th April~~ 1898.
