SIR,

I have the honor to report that a plague shed was constructed in the village of Arava Kurichi a few days back and while it was being guarded by two talayaris, it is said to have been burnt down. The offenders have not been found out and the matter is said to be under Police investigation. The shed was erected as a man with a passport was found with fever (from which he has since quite recovered,) at Arava Kurichi.

2. The Station House Officer of Aravakurichi reports that some Mohammedans are suspected to have burnt down the plague shed and that it is not known who the actual offenders are. The offence took place on the 13th May 1899 and the Police have not yet finished investigating the case. I have called upon the Sub Magistrate of Aravakurichi to make another inquiry himself and report the results at once. On receipt of his report, a further report will be sent.

Report from Ghulam Dohammed Deputy Dahsildar of Aravakurichi to the Collector of Coimbatore through the Joint Magistrate Coimbatore R.O. No. $\frac{315}{Rw}$ of 1898 of 25th June 1898.

With reference to your Proceedings dated 21st June 1898 R.O. No. 719 C. discharging me to make enquiries and report regarding the burning of the Magshed I beg to report that on the day the shed was burnt I made enquiries but could not find any clue. Subsequently i.e. about a week hence I got information that one Ayyaroonaidu a previous convict and another were probably the persons who burnt the shed at the instigation of others. As there were none who could come forward and testify to this fact and it being also rumoured that some persons who had been passing on the way from Hosur to Aravakurichi at that time, I communicated this information to the Station House Officer Aravakurichi and asked him to try to find out whether the abovesaid persons were the real culprits and whether any

any persons said to have been passing on the Kaver road could be traced out.

2. I have also been making enquiries until now but could not find any clue.

3. There is no question that some of the Ravuthans probably the relatives of the patient and also others were behind the screen and it is very difficult to get evidence. The owner of the garden at a distance from the shed burnt and his servants were enquired into on the day of the occurrence but they also said that they do not know anything. It appearing to me that Drari and Chinna Muthu Karuppan Village menials who had been put to watch the shed either did not sleep or were privy to the action. I reported against them and the Sub Collector in his order dated 10 June 1899 No. D.D. No. 810 of 99 dropped with their services. The Joint Magistrate's order C No. 1232 of 19.6.99 is enclosed.

SIR,

C. No. 1565P

In continuation of my letter D. C. No. 719 of 1899 dated 19th June 1899, I have the honour to enclose herein the report of the Deputy Tahsildar of Aravakurichi on the subject of the burning of the plague shed in that village.

2. It would appear from the report of the Police Inspector that there were no signs of dissatisfaction among the inhabitants of Aravakurichi village towards the putting up of the sheds and that the act might have been done by some of the bad characters. He also adds that the shed was erected close to a brick kiln far away from the village thereby suggesting that it might have been due to mere accident.

3. Vague rumours suggest that the charriar of the Pallappatti union a mahomedan and presumably a relation of the patient knows none more of the burning of the shed than he will tell.

I have the honours to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant
