D.O. No. 11.

Ootacamund, 14th April 1899.

My dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your D.O. of the 6th Inst. and shall duly carry out His Excellency's order in re-Captain Robertson. As by this arrangement Dr. Langley of Arkhnam who was recommended by me to be posted to the General Hospital, Madras, will not now be wanted there, I propose for His Excellency's approval that he be nominated to Chingleput (vice Dr. Thomas who has been permitted to resign) instead of Dr. Page whom I previously recommended for it. Dr. Langley is senior to Dr. Page and has done his work to my entire satisfaction. He can be relieved by Dr. Murray as previously proposed.

As the Plague Commr. has asked me to reserve a Temporary Plague doctor for Kallikote Dr. Page will be available for it.

Favour of very early order is requested.

Yours Sincerely
C. Sibthorpe.
