Note for the Secretary

Mr. Charlesworth is one of the temporary doctors ^{and} obtained from England. ~~He~~ is one of those ~~three~~ ~~temp~~ ~~doctors~~ whose services have been retained on a salary of Rs 600 per mensem for a further period of six months from the 25th May 1899 (G.O. No. 598 ^{mis} Public, dated 31.5.99). The lists of Medical Officers as they stood on 1.2.99 and 1.3.99 show that Mr. Charlesworth was then employed as acting Dt. Medical & Sanitary Officer, Godavari. Similar lists received from the Surgeon-General during April, May & June do not show his name. ~~The omission was~~ ~~Probably due to the fact~~ that Mr. Charlesworth was not employed on the plague duty during those months.

These papers are in this Dept.

— Mr. but in future lists all the specially imported doctors' names should be entered. This can be done by altering the heading as shown. Explain to S.G.

MS 12.7.99

Doc. H.M. with further inquiry made of Surgeon General. Presumably Mr. Charlesworth was working in some non-plague appointment up to July 1st
