NOTE FOR THE J. Comr.

The pay of the Camp Clerk is Rs 60 and the present incumbent of the office has drawn about Rs 235 as travelling allowance between 12-9-90 & 19-3-91. The average emoluments of the office is thus about Rs 100 a month and as the Clerk I believe travels third class ^{with little or no luggage} by rail, while he draws double 2d class fare as travelling allowance, the appointment is maybe said to be the best paid clerical one in the office.

2. The present Clerk is not qualified for the appointment, not having passed the necessary test. He was exempted from the test for six months & the exemption expires on the 28th instant. I do not know whether he is useful in Camp but while in the office, he does only typing.

3. Mr. Hammick fixed the pay of the appointment at Rs 60

Respected Sir,

I saw your very kind telegram addressed to the Resident enquiring if I am willing to take up the appointment of your travelling clerk.

For my own part, I can assure you Sir, that I should be very glad to do so; but to my great misfortune the case has been really one of a bitter conflict of duties - the duty that I owe to myself and mankind on the one hand and that which I owe to my aged and superstitious but very kind father on the other. He resolutely told me that he could not see me travelling in plague-infected localities if I

Could be avoided, although I ^{even} transgressed my limits and did my best to prevail upon him.

This matter of private concern I have taken the liberty to tell you because I am very sorry that I have been obliged to let lose this important opportunity of bettering my prospects through the anxiety of a timid but loving father whose wishes in this matter I could not cross.

~~But~~ However, if you have no objection to kindly give me a place in the office itself, even on a less sum than the one mentioned, I shall be very thankful and grateful to you. Requesting respectfully once more to be excused,

I beg to remain
Respectfully Sir
Your most obedient servant
