7. Brief history of case.— A female named Sanjeevi arrived at Arampathi village from Kolar on the 10th instant with high fever. It appears that her husband and sister died of plague shortly before she left Kolar and that she herself was delivered of a child there. She died on the 11th instant and she appears to have had Buboes. The moneygar who noticed the illness on the very day on which the deceased arrived at the village and who also appears to have placed a guard over her house, quietly allowed her body to be buried. He reported the matter to the authorities only after the body was buried. His conduct has been brought to the notice of the Sub collector.
