ENCLOSURES.

Copy of a communication from V. Venugopal chetty Esquire I.C.S.

Sub collector & ex officio Chairman Municipal Council, Tiruvannamalai to The Collector of South Arcot, dated 19th April 1899 No. 8 of 90

As plague is diminishing at Vellore I have the honour to propose that the services of the Nurse (on Rs 100) employed at the Plague Camp in this town may be dispensed with from the 1st of May next. She has had no work here since her entertainment. A nurse can be entertained as soon as a case of plague arises. I request that the sanction of the plague Commissioner maybe applied for the same.

True copy forwarded to the Plague Commissioner and recommended.
As the nurse has no work whatever at present, her retention which costs the municipality Rs 100 a month and is rather heavy considering the finances of the Council, does not appear absolutely necessary.

As one can be appointed whenever required, the services of the nurse may be dispensed with as proposed by the Sub Collector.

21/4/99

I have the honor to propose that the services of the nurse (or 100) employed at the Plague Camp in this town may be dispensed with as proposed by the Plague Commissioner.
