Robert B. Lelegge Esq. S. L. S.
Acting COLLECTOR OF Salem.

TO

THE Madras Commissioner
Madras.

SIR,

The disinfection charges, compensation for property destroyed under Regulations 9 and 21 Lighting charges, rewards for destruction of rats and sundry items of expenditure for which no separate heads have been prescribed, are now being shown in the Budget and the Treasury accounts under "Miscellaneous" - I understood that the expenditure on account of troops also will be shown in the Treasury accounts against the same head. It seems anomalous that the expenditure on account of definite purposes should appear under Miscellaneous. I have the honor biggest, therefore, the advisability of separate additional items being opened as above under 24 & Medical Local.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
