EXPLANATORY REMARKS.

* The cost of perchloride of mercury supplied to the Leab Jung Hospital and Dispensaries in the District. The expenditure was not known in this office until it was actually incurred on 25th April, 1899 by the District Medical & Sanitary Officer who purchased the medicine for disinfecting purposes at the instance of the President Salub Board Vizianagram. It was consequently not foreseen when the estimate of this District for April, 1899 was prepared on 26th March, 1899, columns 3 & 4 under 'Local' are left blank, as no expenditure is anticipated to be incurred during the current & succeeding quarters.

Municipal

The estimate for each Municipality is shown separately as required by G.O. No. 7969 Mto: dated 29th May, 1899. The 1st column is left blank, as allotments have not yet been sanctioned by Government separately for each Municipality. The lump allotment of Rs 2680 under Municipal adopted in the estimate has been sanctioned in G.O. No. 496 Financial dated 12th April and 569 Financial dated 3rd May, 1899. This lump allotment has been apportioned among the four Municipalities ratably with reference to the actual expenditure incurred by each.

The details of salaries and establishments provided for in this estimate under Municipal are the same as those explained in the estimate of the District for April, 1899 with the exception that the pay of the Hospital Assistant on plague duty at Vizianagram is not Rs 35 as shown therein but Rs 25 with plague allowance of Rs 10 per mensem as reported in this office. See G.O. No. 211 P. dated 6th June, 1899. The Chairman of this Municipality provides provides for the Hospital Assistant in his estimate for the quarter ending 30th September/99 what he calls language allowance at Rs 2 per month in addition to the Plague allowance of Rs 10. This language allowance is shown in this estimate also as reported by the Chairman. The Chairman has been requested to explain this item in detail.

The actual expenditure incurred on account of the entertainment of the Hospital Assistant on plague duty at Anahapalli during the quarter ending 30th June 1899 is shown in the estimate as Rs 25 only instead of as Rs 75, the reason being that, as he was appointed for two months in that quarter to discharge the duties of the Hospital Assistant in charge of the Municipal dispensary in Anahapalli without prejudice to plague duty, he was paid from Municipal and not from plague funds. The paying of Rs 50 thus effected is included in column 5 of the estimate against 'Miscellaneous' of the Anahapalli Municipality.
