Sir,

I beg to report that one Police constable named Venkata-sawmy who came from Arcot and was detained for 4 days at Arkonam and discharged from there, was found suffering from fever in the Bangalore Passenger Train on the evening of the 3rd instant. He was examined by the Hospital Assistant Sethurama Iyer and sent to the Plague Hospital as he found that his temperature was above 100 deg. This I already informed you in the Daily Report of Yesterday. To-day I was told his temperature was 102° last night.

I beg to remain

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.

To
The Plague Commissioner
Madras

Sir,

With reference to your Ref. on C. No 4188 dated 14th April 1899, I have the honor to inform you that passenger Venkatasamy arrived here from Arcot with fever (Temp: 102.4°) on the evening of the 31st March 99. He was removed to the camp for observation. During his observation the temperature was normal on the 2nd, 3rd & 4th days, and the disease was diagnosed as Simple Continued Fever as there were no symptoms of plague in him. The passenger are generally kept here under observation for 4 days. He was discharged on the evening of the 3rd April 99.

I have the honor to be
