Note for the CS

There is a standing rule that Officers applying for deputation, travelling and other allowances should do so through the Accountant General. vide G.O. No 1886 Financial dated 15th August 1894. Captain French's travelling allowance bill of Rs 12-4- should have been submitted through the Accountant General. This may be pointed out to the Local Department.

The pay of the special Plague Officers is debitable to Provincial - Direct - 2400 grants for medical purposes; and any amount that may be paid to him as travelling allowance is also debited to the same head of account.

Under Article 1192 of the C. S. R. the Local Govt. may sanction the grant of travelling allowance to a prisoner proceeding to join a new appointment; and under Article 1243 he is also entitled to travelling allowance for the return journey not exceeding the amount of allowance granted for joining the appointment.
