The person to whom gratuity is proposed to be paid by the Municipal Council has put in a service of nearly 24 years, for the first 17 years of which she was a nurse on a pay of about Rs. 5 and for the remaining period a midwife on Rs. 8. In f. n. 379. m. dated 22nd March 1894 and n. 176. m. dated 25th January 1898, the Govt. held that a nurse on such a small pay as Rs. 5 was not entitled to gratuity on the ground that her work could not be more than that of a coolie. While in f. n. 1658. L. dated 12th September 1895, a gratuity of Rs. 30 or six months' atthof. pay was sanctioned to a nurse as a special case in consideration of her long service of 31 years. On the other hand it would appear that a midwife is entitled to gratuity as her work can not be called "purely manual"; and for a precedent in which gratuity has been sanctioned to a midwife, please see fo. No. 2455 L. dated 20th December 1895.

In the present case, however, the service

Chairman,

To, The Secretary to Government
Local and Municipal Department,

Through the Subcollector and the Collector of Chingleput District

Sir,

I have the honor to state that one Mangathayee had, till very recently been employed as a midwife in the Municipal hospital Conjeevaram. Being over 50 years old and too feeble to attend to her duties, she resigned her appointment and the resignation accepted with effect

3396/M/98

effect from 1st August 1898.

She claims gratuity on the ground that she has served the Municipality for over 20 years. Both the Civil Apothecary and the District Medical and Sanitary Officer support her application. No service register having been maintained for any of the Municipal servants, the history of her service cannot be traced correctly. So far as can be ascertained from the acquittance roll and other available records, it appears she was entertained as a nurse in 1874 and continued as such till 1891. She was then appointed as midwife on Rs. 8. Her total service has thus been considerably over 20 years and the Council is of opinion that she may be allowed a gratuity of six Months pay or Rs. 48 under article 524 of the Civil Service Regulations. I request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government thereto.

2. A copy of the resolution of the Council and the application of Mangathayee are herein enclosed. The delay in the submission of this application was owing to the difficulty in finding out certain records relating to her service.

I have the honor to be
