Sir,

With reference to your letter No 20th January 1899, I have the honor to state, in your para 2, that I am certainly of opinion measure against plague your Council should tertain a Chief Sanitary Inspector. Irrespec a Municipality of the size of Bellary shou have such a subordinate at all times, with securing uniformity in sanitary treatment of parts of the town. So long as Sanitary Ins detached in charge of scattered areas of the town possible to secure anything approaching system for the common well-being of the town, whilst and outturn of work must vary with the ind peculiarities. Even granted that sense of hon duty founded thereon, were in the majority of it must be better to obtain a result according to standard instead of an average. With a Co

You have in Mr Fairman a suitable Sanitary Inspector for the work. To fulfil his duty, fficiently, considering the scattered condition of
