Lady nurses, Vellore

FOR ORDERS.

Flag - C By G.O. No. 16, dt 19-1-99 the Surgeon General posted two lady nurses to Vellore for plague duty. The G.O. placing their services

D at the disposal of the Plague Commr is dated 28-1-99 & states that when not provided with free quarters, they will be granted in lieu thereof an allowance of Rs 3 per diem. The Plague Commr communicated this G.O. to the Coll: of N. Arcot with the intimation

Flag - E P.C.'s Progs No $\frac{294}{31-1-99}$ that the pay of the nurses was Rs 175 per mensem in addition to free quarters, fuel, lights & punkah pullers (or 3 Rs a day if free quarters could not be provided).

2. On the 19th January, the D.C. appears to have received a D.O. from from the Collr of N. Arcot stating that he had quarters ready for the nurses but that they were unfurnished. Thereupon the S.C. after consulting the Surgeon General, purchased the required furniture from Messrs Oakes & Co & sent it to Vellore. ~~[illegible]~~ Some articles were also purchased locally from the Vellore Jail. The two bills amounted to Rs 217-11-0 & Rs 55-11-0 respectively. The S.C. sanctioned the payment of these charges in his Procs No 1187 dt 2-5-98.

3. In this Procs. the S.C. made a remark that he presumed that the lady nurses were supplied with free quarters & were not given an allowance of Rs 3 a day in addition to their pay. With reference to the remark, the Collr now reports (Cur 1076 P) that the nurses were not supplied with free quarters but were paid house rent allowance of Rs 3 a day in addition to their pay & enquires whether ~~[illegible]~~ under these circumstances the ~~[illegible]~~ cost of the furniture should be paid by him from Govt. funds. He also forwards two more bills for Rs 30-4-0 for certain articles ordered by one of the lady nurses from Bombay.

4. The D.O. upon which the S.C. supplied the furniture was never sent into the office & as the articles were ~~was~~ purchased by a competent authority, the bills must be paid. ~~The nurses~~ It is not understood why the Collr got furniture for the nurses & at the same time ~~[illegible]~~ gave them the daily allowance of Rs 3. Considering the fact that the pay of the lady nurses is only Rs 175 a month & that they have recently been refused carriage allowance, it would be hard× to order the recovery of the daily allowance, & it is submitted that the bills may be paid by Govt & the furniture treated as the property of Government. They were entitled to free (furnished) quarters or to Rs 3 per day.

Strictly speaking if they got Rs 3 they should have provided themselves with both quarters & furniture.

No furnished quarters are however available in Vellore & it would have been hard to require the nurses to buy furniture themselves when they were only likely to be in Vellore temporarily.

The Coll. does not say what the nurses actually paid for quarters in Vellore. Rs 3 a day seems very high & my recollection of Vellore is that rents were low. If furniture having been supplied they were only entitled to have actual rent paid reimbursed to them.

If H. M. thinks necessary enquiries may be made on this point.

If not the bill may be passed & the Collector be directed to take charge of the furniture which may be wanted for a similar purpose again

1. The nurses were allowed free quarters or Rs 3 a day. There was therefore no justification for allowing them ~~free~~ furniture &c. in addition to the Rs 3 per day.
The cost of the furniture Rs 217-11 plus 55-11 = 273-6 or the allowance of Rs 3 per diem, ~~[illegible]~~ whichever is less, should therefore be recovered.

2. The articles ordered by the nurses from Bombay on their own authority must be paid for by them, unless they are in lieu of articles ordered by the Collr. for the nurses. I gather from the Collr's letter C. no. 1880 that the latter is the case but am not sure.

NOTE FOR THE Secretary

The H. M. has ordered that the cost of furniture (Rs 273·6·0) or the daily allowance drawn, whichever is less, should be recovered from the nurses. The nurses are entitled to have either

Information is not available here ~~[illegible]~~ as to which is less, the cost of the furniture or the total of the daily allowance drawn. If the cost of the furniture should be less and accordingly recovered, the furniture will become the property of the nurses who will then have nothing to complain of. If the cost of the furniture should be less and accordingly recovered, the furniture will become the property of the nurses who will then have nothing to complain of. If, however, the daily allowance should happen to be less and be recovered, the nurses would appear the entitled to payment by Govt. of the actual charges incurred by them on account of house-rent, fuel, lights and punka-pullers. ~~Information as to the total amount of allowance drawn by the nurses is not available here.~~ No orders have ~~been~~ been passed on this point. The Collector may at the same time be asked to report also whether the nurses did not ~~[illegible]~~ themselves incur charges on account of fuel, lights and punka-pullers.

Referring to para 2 of the Hon'ble Member's Note, attention is solicited to the papers in P.C.'s Progs No. 384 of 9.2.99 and the Collector's letter referred to by the Hon'ble Member. It will be seen therefrom ~~that~~ some of the articles supplied to the nurses under the Plague Commr's orders ~~which~~ were not approved of by the nurses and therefore returned to Messrs Oakes & Co. In lieu of the articles so returned, Miss Hawdon got certain articles from Bombay at her own instance. The Collector did not object to this, as the value of the articles so obtained ~~from Bombay~~ (Rs 30.4.8) was less than the value of the articles returned to Messrs Oakes & Co (Rs 51.7.6). It may perhaps be therefore assumed that the articles obtained by Miss Hawdon from Bombay were ordered by competent authority.

23.6.99

Yes.

Ask the Col. to state what was the amount drawn by each of the nurses of daily allowance at Rs 2. per diem also to state what the rent the nurses actually paid for their quarters, & if they were provided with fuel lights & punkah pullers.

b&w 23.6

As stated in para 1 of the former note (page 1), the lady nurses are entitled to pay Rs 175 + free quarters + fuel + lights + punkah pullers (vide Flag I.). The allowance of Rs 3 a day covers only free quarters (i.e. presumably furnished quarters) & not the other items (vide Flag II.). But by some oversight on the part of the Collr, the nurses were given the use of furniture (costing in all Rs 303-10-0) in addition to the daily allowance of Rs 3. They were also given an allowance for fuel, lights & punkahs (Rs [illegible] a month in the case of Miss Bleaney & Rs 8 in the case of Miss Hawdon). But they had their own accommodation for which Miss Bleaney paid Rs 50 & Miss Hawdon Rs 19-11-11. The nurses have left Vellore already & are no longer in the service of this Govt. The furniture has been made over to the Collector. The H. M. has ordered that the cost of the furniture or the daily allowance of Rs 3, whichever is less should be recovered from the nurses

To Fin & Public Depts

Fin U O No. 112

(vide page 4). The former amounts to Rs 303-10-0 and the latter amounts to Rs

387 paid to Miss Bleaney
252 " " Hawdon
Rs 639

But as the furniture has been already made over to the Collr, it ~~seems~~ is submitted that it will be fair to recover only the difference between its original cost and its present valuation. The latter is not known. The recovery of the difference will however be a difficult matter. In this connection attention is invited to the recent confidential despatch ~~alleg~~ ~~despatch~~ from the Secy of State in which reference is made to the allegation that lady nurses & temporary doctors are not being treated properly ~~[illegible]~~. The Collr's final reply after several reminders was received only today, & hence the papers could not be submitted earlier.

12/8/99

Submitted that under the circumstances it is hardly advisable to try & recover the money from the nurses.

SIR,

With reference to G. O. Ref on C. no 1678. P. dated 29th May 1899, I have the honor to state that the following articles originally supplied by Messrs Oakes and Company and ordered by the Plague Commissioner to be paid for, in his endorsement no 384, dated 9th February 1899, were returned by the nursing sisters to Messrs Oakes and Company, apparently because they did not like them.–

1 Pair of blankets.
4. Tumblers
4. Vegetable dishes.
1. Meat safe
1. Pillow

In view of the above articles returned, Miss Hawdon at her own instance sent for articles mentioned in the enclosed receipts from the Bombay firms and asked me to pay for them. As the value of the articles thus sent for by Miss Hawdon, viz Rs 30-4-0 was less than that of the articles returned to Messrs Oakes and Company, viz: Rs 57-7-6, I did not object to her claim.
