Office of the Health Officer and
Sanitary Inspector, Trivandrum,
18th August 1899.

To,

The President,

Town Improvement Committee,

Trivandrum.

Sir,

With reference to your memo No 525 dated the 7th Instant, I have the honour to report that Krishnama Charri from Seringapatam has not arrived here and no passport was issued to him at Tinnevely Railway station. Further Mr. Viraragava ayyan gar B.A B.L. High Court Vakil reports that a man bearing such a name has not come to his house. I made further enquires within the Fort and other places among the Iyengar Brahmins about his whereabouts. In Travancore State his name was not recorded at the frontier plague Inspection Station. The enclosure also is herewith returned.
