U.O. No 148 dated 23
September 1911

NOTE FOR THE P. I.

Captain J. French was appointed to the 27th Regiment of Madras Infantry on the 12th May 190 and was on the strength of that Regiment until the time of his appointment to plague duty. He was then a wing officer of the Regiment.

The Army list for July 1908 shows Capt. J. French as a wing officer with the remark "Station Staff Officer, Trichinopoly" while the subsequent lists show him as a wing officer with the remark "on plague duty in Madras". His pay in the Military department was Rs 374-1-6 of Rs 100 he was getting a staff salary in addition. He gets a deputation allowance of Rs 300 for his employment in the Civil department.

SIR,

In continuation of my letter No 1412 of the 17th Instant, I have the honor to state that the Accountant General writes that exchange compensation allowance is passed to Captain French, Special Plague Officer, in the Civil Department as he was shown as drawing it in the last pay certificate issued to him in the Military Department. The Officer Commanding the 27th M. I at Trichinopoly quotes the Resolution of the Government of India No 3624 of the 18th August 1893 as the authority for allowing it.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
